STEM Scholars Scholarship Application Process for Students

Submit Application • Student completes application on STEM Scholars Website

Application Review

- Application is reviewed by STEM Scholars Program Coordinators
- Student will receive email from STEMScholars@montgomerycollege.edu with a status update or request for an advising appointment

Honors Course Registration

- · Students with verfied eligibility will be given permission to register for the scholarship honors course
- Financial Aid office places hold on student account to prevent student from being dropped for nonpayment

Scholarship Awarded

- · Official award letter sent to students via email within first week of semester
- Student must return signed letter by third week of semester
- Award dispursed to student accounts around third week of semester