

The Robert L. Giron Global Humanities
Lecture Series presents
david alberto fernández.

Takoma Park Poet Laureate david alberto fernández will share poems from his recent publication, Mundo se consume/World consumes itself.

This bilingual collection offers the reader a journey into the pandemic; into the redemptive power of nature; and the paradoxes of political conditions and the human heart (Beltway Editions, 2025).

Thursday, February, 26, 2026
11:00 am-12:15pm
CM 211
Takoma Park Campus***

ZOOM option:
CLICK HERE to register!

*To bring your class to the event or to request accommodations, contact Dr. Carla Naranjo at:
globalhumanities@montgomerycollege.edu

